LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

EXPLORE
DUFFERIN
NATURALLY CENTRED

We respectfully acknowledge that Dufferin County resides within the traditional territory and ancestral lands of the Tionontati (Petun), Attawandaron (Neutral), Haudenosaunee (Six Nations), and Anishinaabe peoples.

We also acknowledge that various municipalities within the county of Dufferin reside within the treaty lands named under the Haldimand Deed of 1784 and two of the Williams Treaties of 1818: Treaty 18: the Nottawasaga Purchase, and Treaty 19: The Ajetance Treaty.

These traditional territories upon which we live and learn, are steeped in rich Indigenous history and traditions. It is with this statement that we declare to honour and respect the past and present connection of Indigenous peoples with this land, its waterways and resources.

For more on Indigenous history and treaty lands in Dufferin County, visit the Resource Guide available through the Museum of Dufferin at dufferinmuseum.com/learning-hub

HISTORIC STOPS IN DUFFERIN

1 Shelburne Public Library

Andrew Carnegie, a Scottish-American industrialist and philanthropist believed in free education - he built 2509 public libraries around the world! A grant of $6000 from the Carnegie Foundation in 1911 made it possible for the Town of Shelburne to build its own. The Shelburne Public Library opened its doors on February 12, 1912.

2

St. John's Church, Mono

The red brick church which still stands to this day was built in 1878, however the cemetery at this location predates the building. Amongst the early graves is that of William Robinson, his headstone tells the story that he was killed in 1831 when he had taken refuge in a hollow tree that was struck by lightning.

The Grand Valley School House

Located on Main Street, Grand Valley, the school house was built in 1892. This brick building held public school classes on the main floor, and secondary school classes held on the second floor. The school closed in 1959.

Dufferin County Courthouse, Orangeville

Built in 1881, on the site of the old lacrosse field, the Dufferin County Courthouse was designed by Guelph architect Cornelius J. Sproule and cost $25,000 to build. At one time, a governor's residence, 22-cell gaol house and a walled recreation yard were attached to the back.

Dufferinbot.ca

Headwaters Communities in Action

Headwaters Communities in Action (HCIA) is a citizens group that fosters leadership and action in support of a long-term vision of community well-being for the Headwaters Region. We do this by helping to inform and engage citizens about issues affecting the well-being of our community. By hosting community conversations and encouraging people from different sectors and municipalities to work together, we help to coordinate effective responses to shared issues.

246372 Hockley Rd, Mono
headwaterscommunities.org

Headwaters Food and Farming Alliance (HFFA)

The Headwaters Food and Farming Alliance (HFFA) envisions a food system that is productive, sustainable, transparent, and fair; supports the health and well-being of our residents and food providers; and contributes to the prosperous and equitable economy.
